

Purpose of CATYC

Article II of the Constitution and Bylaws of the Council on Accreditation for Two-Year Colleges, revised September 2017, states the purposes of the organization:

- To work with The Higher Learning Commission in the promotion of standards, practices, and policies for two-year colleges.
- To promote effective communication and articulation of the membership represented by this Council with the American Association of Community Colleges and other educational agencies.
- To support appropriate legislation to improve programs and services in two-year colleges.
- To sponsor workshops, seminars, and academies on appropriate topics of interest where differing views, methodologies, and interests that support the goals of The Higher Learning Commission may be shared.
- To promote research and assist the member institutions in meeting change in two-year college education.
- To provide information and encourage community services among member institutions and communities interested in two-year college education.
- To sponsor an annual meeting of the membership.

Membership Benefits

- Ensuring a strong voice for two-year colleges in the Higher Learning Commission region.
- Fall meeting for institutional leaders to share fellowship, exchange views and to meet persons shaping our nation's future.
- Annual community college reception at the Higher Learning Commission spring meeting.
- Direct Council liaison with the Higher Learning Commission executive officers and staff.
- Opportunity to participate in the Council's and the Higher Learning Commission sponsored research grant program.
- A staff offering assistance to Council members on an ongoing basis.
- Endorsement/support of legislation improving programs and services in community college education.
- Cooperation with the Higher Learning Commission to promote desirable standards, practices, and policies.
